Madras Travelling Allowance Rules--Rule 67(a)--Power to reduce travelling allowance by 50% in cases of overstayal of joining time--Delegation to the District Superintendents of Police--Inclusion of Commandant, Malabar Special Police and Special Officer, Special Armed Police Units--Proposal.

From the Inspector General of Police, Rc.No.1367/Aud/48 dated/19.10.48.

Under Rule 67(a) of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules, the Government may in any case of overstayal of joining time dealt with under F.R.108, reduce the Travelling Allowance by not more than 50% of the amount that would otherwise be admissible. This power was delegated to the Inspector General of Police for the duration of the war in 1942 and then to the District Superintendent of Polices for the duration of the war in 1945 In 1946 the Inspector General recommended that the above delegation might be continued permanently to avoid unnecessary work and correspondence. The proposal was accepted and the orders delegating the power to District Superintendent of Polices permanently along with certain other powers were issued in G.O.2985, Home, dated/23.9.46. Necessary amendments to the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules with reference to the above orders were issued in G.O.798 Finance dated/13.8.48. The Inspector General now requests that the power to reduce Travelling Allowance by 50% in the case of the subordinates of the Malabar Special Police and the Special Armed Police Units may be delegated to the Commandant Malabar Special Police and the Special Officer, Special Armed Police Units respectively.

2. The Commandant, Malabar Special Police is of the rank of a District Superintendent of Police and the Special Officer, Special Armed Police Units of the rank of Deputy Inspector General and there seems to be no objection to delegate to them the power to reduce Travelling Allowance by 50% in the case of the subordinates of the Malabar Special Police and the Special Armed Police Units respectively.

Finance may see for remarks.
